

Heidrun Kaletsch, theatre director. After her studies in Berlin and some years of directing work Heidrun attends a 3 year's masterclass in acting and directing pedagogy (1999-2001 at AktZent Berlin/Gitis Moscow, artistic director Prof. Dr. Jurij Alschitz). From 1997 until 2004 she is artistic director of the Burg-Theater Rosslau Summer Festival. She gets awards for literature by the Federal State of Sachsen-Anhalt (dramatization of „Der Waldbruder“ nach JMR Lenz in 1996) and for women's research by the Berlin Senate (as playwright of „Frauen von Tschechow“ in 2000). Heidrun has produced numerous theatre productions in Germany and Italy, which participated in many festivals (Weimar - Cultural Capital of Europe, Germany 99, Fiera della Parola, Italy 2005, Festival di Benevento, Italy 2006, Festival Cosmonauti Roma, Italy 2006, Festival Armunia Castiglioncello, Italy 2007, Festival Maria Kiew, Ukraine 2007). She developed the pedagogical concept for the European WISE project 2013-2015, wrote some of the dramaturgy (Chapters V, VI, VII, X). She directed Chapters I, V, IX, X, XII. As acting pedagogue she leads international workshops for actors.